RESTAURANT & BAR

AN OASIS OF INDIAN FLAVOURS

OPENING HOURS

Tuesday - Sunday

5:00 PM - 10:30 PM

Our Craft, Our Promise

Our food is personal — crafted with patience, passion, and respect for India's culinary heritage.

Every dish at Mukti begins long before it reaches the table. It starts with memories, with the flavours we grew up with, and with the passion that fuels our kitchen every day. Indian cooking is built on patience. Spices roasted slowly until they release their aroma, ingredients layered thoughtfully to create depth and techniques passed down through generations.

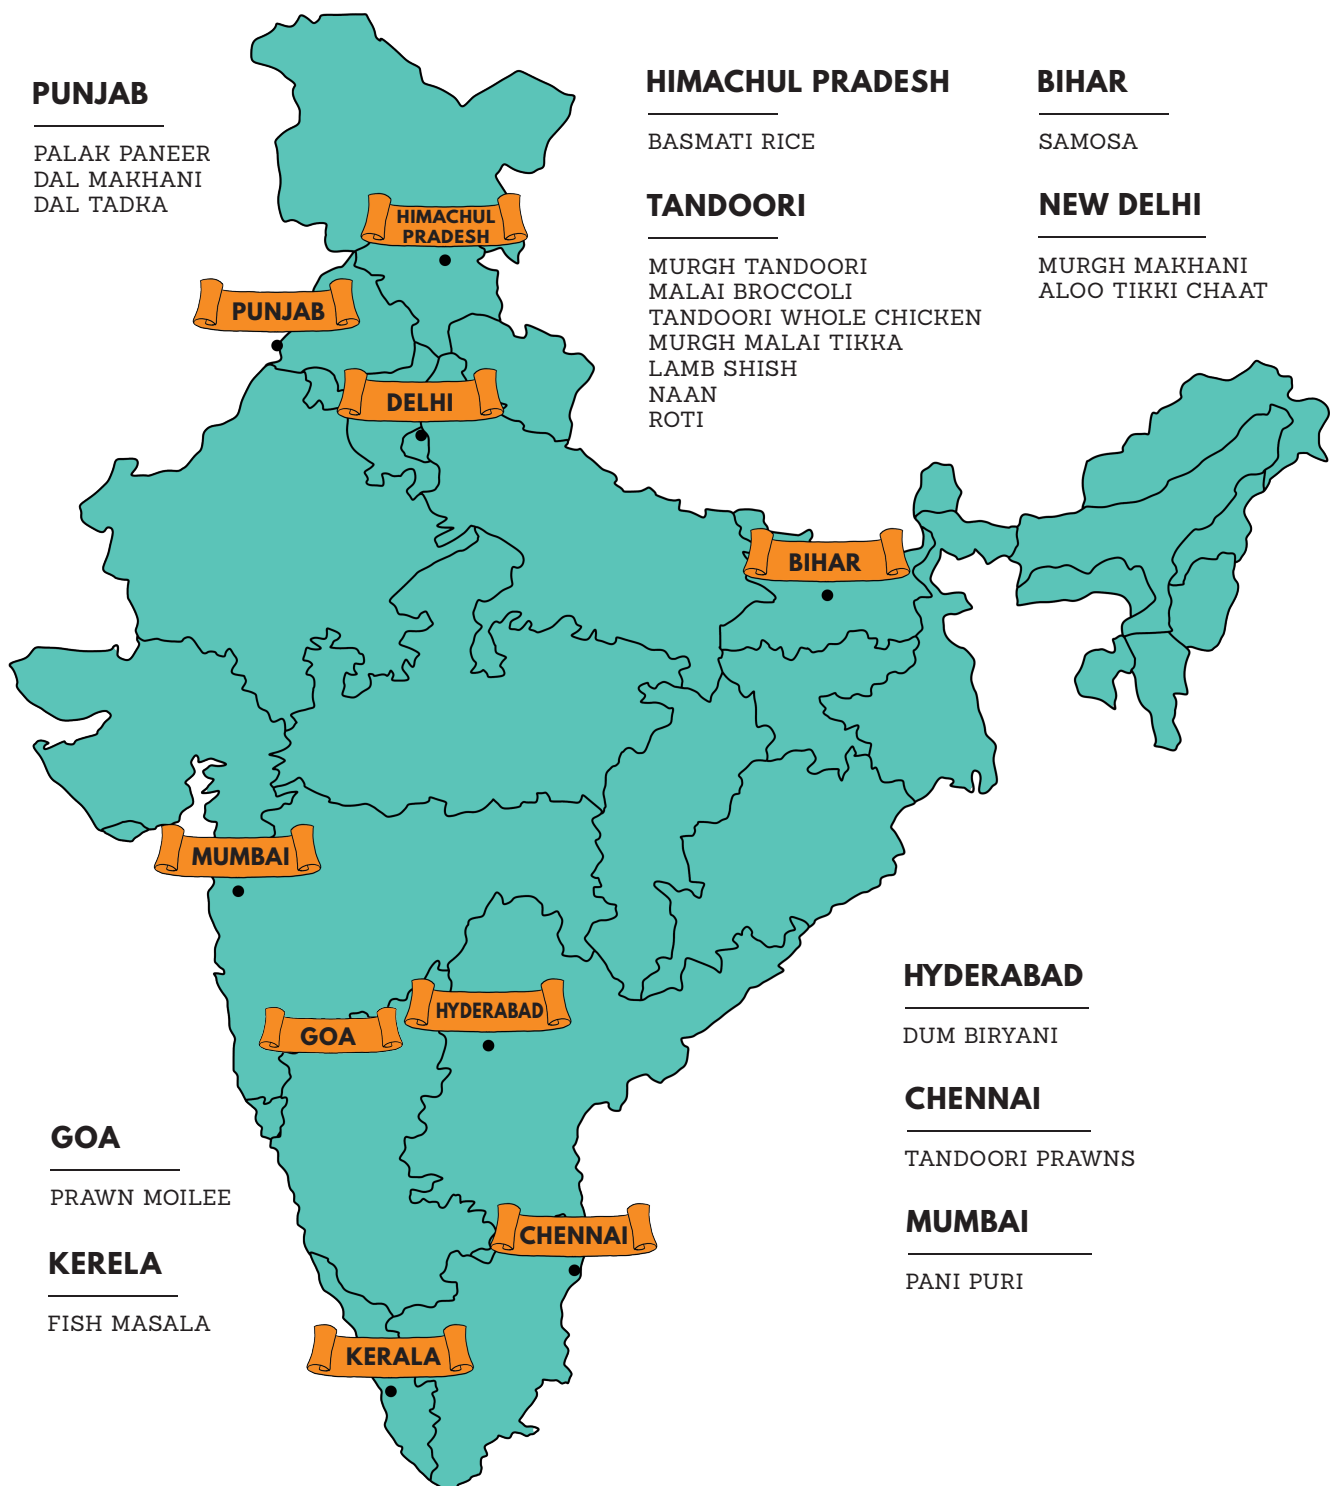

Here, we honour that tradition while adding our own emotion and creativity to the process. Our chefs cook with intuition and feeling, trusting their senses as they balance heat, sweetness, acidity and aroma. That personal connection is what gives each dish its character. When passion guides every step - from chopping to simmering to finishing - flavours naturally evolve into something fuller, richer and more distinctly expressive.

We believe food should tell a story. A story of roots, of craft, of the joy of sharing a meal. Every plate we serve carries that intention- comfort where it's needed, excitement where it matters and a sense of warmth that lingers long after the meal is over. At Mukti our cooking is not just technique; it is emotion turned into flavour, tradition shaped into experience and passion served to your table

From our kitchen to your table, with gratitude

THE CRAFT BEHIND OUR CURRIES

From handcrafted masalas to freshly ground spices, every curry reflects our commitment to technique and tradition. Slow cooking and precise seasoning allow each dish to develop warmth, complexity, and true Indian character.

Behind every curry is time and instinct. Aromatics are sautéed, spices bloomed & gravies slow-cooked to build rich, harmonious flavour that reflects regional roots and our commitment to care and authenticity.

Coastal Specialties

Fresh catch meets coastal spice, blending clean flavours, bright aromatics, and seafood's sweetness with Indian warmth.

ALLERGY ADVISORY

INDIAN COASTAL TRADITIONS

Rooted in India's coastal flavours and crafted with seafood sourced from Hua Hin's fresh markets, our dishes celebrate the purity and natural sweetness of the day's best catch.

Indian coastal cuisine is defined by bright aromatics, gentle heat, and spices that enhance rather than overpower. From coconut-rich curries to lightly charred grills, these traditions bring out the true character of the ocean without masking its delicacy. Our approach follows that philosophy—simple, vibrant, and full of depth.

In this section, you'll find dishes that reflect the warmth of India's shoreline kitchens, prepared with the flavours and spirit of the coast. Whether grilled, simmered, or pan-tossed, each plate combines Hua Hin's fresh local catch with the lively, comforting spices that make Indian seafood so unique.

WHERE EVERY GRAIN MATTERS

Basmati lies at the heart of Indian cooking, cherished for its fragrance, long grains, and naturally airy texture.

We prepare our rice with gentle heat and traditional methods so every grain stays light, separate, and aromatic.

This attention to detail preserves its elegance and allows its natural flavour to shine.

Paired with rich curries, slow-cooked dals, biryanis, or charcoal-grilled meats, our rice brings balance and comfort to each plate.

It absorbs gravies, carries spices, and elevates every bite. Whether served simply steamed or lightly seasoned, our rice reflects care in every grain and completes the Indian dining experience with warmth and authenticity.

DUM BIRYANI

Basmati, spices, and your choice of meat or vegetables are layered and sealed beneath a golden paratha.

As the dough rises, steam gently infuses every grain, creating a biryani that is aromatic, tender, and full of depth.
